

ADULT CLASSES, WORKSHOPS TERMS & CONDITIONS

I hereby release The Painted Pot Inc & ClayHouse Brooklyn Inc., from any and all liability regarding any activity at The Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn.

1. Tuition includes one class once a week 2 hours long with 2 hours of instruction, time to clean, clay, glazes, and open studio time. Students must reserve time in our scheduling system for open studio time.
2. All registration sales are final; no refunds or credits will be issued once a course has begun. Fees may not be transferred to another semester. If ClayHouse Brooklyn should cancel the class, you will receive a refund unless mandated by the city/state to close. If class is cancelled due to weather or pandemic, no refunds will be given, credit only will be given. It is understood you are signing and paying in full for upcoming class which will be completed at the end date. You will not dispute the credit card charge with your credit card company if your class is cancelled due to COVID-19, any virus or pandemic. Please respect our policy.
3. ClayHouse Brooklyn is not responsible for providing make-up classes or issuing reimbursements for classes changed or missed due to illness, emergency, COVID-19, pandemics and weather closings, substitute teachers, or other events beyond our control. If possible, students will be allowed to make-up one missed class within the week of missing class in the enrolled 8 week semester only.
4. I understand that The Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn is constituted as a group of individuals who have organized for the purpose of enjoying each other's company while learning how to use the pottery wheel, painting pottery techniques, canvas painting, mosaics and glass fusion and that these activities are considered a voluntary assembly for mutual enjoyment in a social situation. Furthermore, The Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn is a parent organization only in the sense that it may facilitate such assemblies. Each individual is acting as a voluntary member and as such is responsible for his or her own actions.
5. I acknowledge that my participation in pottery related activities does not pose limited risk of injury to myself and my personal property. Furthermore, my participation in pottery related activities is voluntary. I am assuming responsibility and liability for my behavior and actions.
6. I understand that I am responsible for my behavior that results in damage to any pottery to be painted provided by The Painted Pot/ ClayHouse Brooklyn and will be held responsible for costs associated with replacing pottery, tools, wheels, brushes and/or other related materials if deemed "unusable" as a result of aforementioned behavior.
7. Please remember that many art materials are hazardous to your health if ingested. All materials are non-toxic, but we still insist that you do not eat or drink while working. ClayHouse/The Painted Pot is not responsible for lost or stolen personal property.
8. I hereby solely and expressly assume liability for all risks and waive any claim I might have against The Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn or any body or individuals acting in the capacity as agents of the organization (activity leaders, staff members, etc). I assume full legal liability for my actions at pottery activities, and release The Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn and any agent acting on behalf of The Painted Pot, Inc and ClayHouse Brooklyn, Inc. from any claims made as a result of my actions.
9. I hereby grant to The Painted Pot & ClayHouse Brooklyn permission to use any photograph or audio or videotape taken at a Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn activity and deemed by The Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn to be in good taste, in any Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn publicity, or other use specifically for the promotion of and public awareness of The Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn.
10. This release shall be effective and binding upon the parties, as well as their heirs, beneficiaries, assigns, successors and legal representatives. By signing, I acknowledge having read and understood this release.
To be eligible for participation at The Painted Pot/ClayHouse Brooklyn, I certify that I meet the following conditions.
 - a. I am an attendee.
 - b. I agree to abide by the rules of conduct.
 - c. I have agreed to this waiver on the line below.
